

The Year of release 2

This is the year of release
It is the sign of the beginning of peace
A new dawn has risen where no lies can be hidden
The future is written by gifts lovingly given

It may sound quite strange
Of how this is arranged
We hear tales of terror, fear destruction
There now begins a new era of construction
The tide is fully turned, new time is dawning
Good winning God willing a bright green morning

Islam means in peace
These words need release
And jihad means struggle not terror or trouble
Understand one another
And let us not suffer

The truth is a sword
And words and deeds forged
In open hearts make
A new order awake
